MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, TUESDAY, MAY 26, 1914.

NO. 306.

COMMENCEMENT

EXERCISES OF THE NORMAL THIS MORNING.

ADDRESS BY MR. LINN

President of Central College of Fayette, Mo.—Diplomas Presented to a Large Class.

The seventh annual commencement exercises of the Maryville State Normal school were held this morning at 10:30 o'clock in the school auditorium. The stage was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowering plants. Rev. L. M. Hale gave the opening invocation. The Normal school chorus then gave two selections, "Hail Smiling Morn" and "Hymn to Cynthia."

President Richardson introduced President Paul H. Linn of Central college, Fayette, Mo., formerly pastor of the Buchanan Street Methodist church of this city. Both men were graduates of the institution of which Mr. Linn is now president. Mr. Linn said in beginning that the only way that the young people going out from this or any other institution could hope to make themselves felt was through the self-expression of the faculties which had been trained in the school.

"If I may not be misunderstood," said Mr. Linn, "I will say that the best thing that you can add to your present equipment, if you do not possess it is a noble discontentment. Contentment is good; yes, contentment of the right sort is an admirable thing to possess, but it is too often confused with pure laziness. Never be content when you can do one more iota toward the accomplishment of the task to which you have set your face."

"Wherever a condition is not perfect, wherever you see a thing which should be done better, wherever your life can be made bigger, fuller and more useful to men, there is the place for a noble discontent. The greatest men which the world has ever known have possessed this discontent. The greatest productions of literature, art, sculpture and everything which is good or beautiful in the world is the product of a man in whose mind was a noble discontent. To this factor is due every invention and all progress which the world has made."

"A noble discontent leads to outward accomplishment, but to be truly great and successful you must be willing to pay the price."

"Home, luxury, material comforts, and even at times friends is the price which is often required of one in the pursuit of the goal which the discontent in his mind has set for him."

After Mr. Linn's address Mrs. F. P. Robinson sang two songs, "Primroses" and "Flower Rain."

Dean George H. Colbert then read the names of those whom the faculty had recommended for graduation, and President Richardson declared them graduates of the school. Those who received diplomas are Eva Call, Clara Clymens, Grace DeMotte, Flora Duncy, Hildred Hanna, Chastain Harrell, Jane Hinoe, Edna Hollister, Arlie Hulet, James Jones, Glen Lukens, Floy Lyle, Della B. Manley, Louise Marshall, Gertrude Mason, Frank McKee, Amber Leone Nabring, Lenore B. Peery, C. B. Perry, Bess Porter, Jane Salmond, Beatrice Sewell, Mattie Simmons, Elizabeth Mary Sobbing and Harriett VanBuren. Mrs. Nellie Evans Dale was granted a post-graduate diploma in the department of home economics and art.

The class play, "A Scrap of Paper," which was given by the senior class last night in the school auditorium, was well attended and was executed with distinction to every member of the cast. Much credit for the success of the play is due Prof. Harry A. Miller, who has been of much help to the students in their practices.

THE NORMAL PAGEANT.

Was a Great Success and Held On the School Campus—To Be an Annual Affair.

Yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock the first Normal school pageant was given on the school campus, just west of the main building. This is an event which will be made an annual affair, and the initial performance yesterday afternoon would indicate that this will become one of the brightest of the Normal school traditions in the years to come.

An audience of nearly 500 people had assembled before the natural stage formed by an open place in the pines, and the actors made their appearance from the pines behind the stage, thus giving each act a beautiful natural setting.

The opening act was given by the training school pupils, who gave several scenes from the Platte Purchase, beginning with the signing of the treaty with the Indians, of the arrival of the early settlers, and finally of the coming of the civilization which we know today. So well had the children prepared their part of the program that they held the audience in rapt attention for more than one hour.

The young men's and young women's Christian organizations were the next to appear on the program, and gave a number of scenes from the book of Ruth. The whole story of Ruth and Naomi was portrayed, the actors showing in their costumes and actions the dress and customs of the times.

The senior class then gave a representation of each of the different departments of instruction in the Normal school. The department of agriculture was represented by a person bearing a sheaf of grain; of history by a Roman orator in the toga; of education by a learned looking person with a book, and so on through each department of the school.

The Philomathean Literary society gave a series of representations from various literary masterpieces, among which were Silas Marner, Rip Van Winkle, The Courtship of Miles Standish, The Other Wise Men, and The Shepherd of the Hills.

The last event of the afternoon was given by the Eureka Literary society, who gave a portrayal of the landing of the John Smith colony in the Virginias. The colonists made safe landing, but it was found necessary to punish some of the recalcitrant workmen by pouring water down their sleeves. Powhatan and his tribe then captured the colonists, but peace was made upon the intercession of Pocahontas, who saved John Smith's life and then was given in marriage to him.

Each actor in the whole pageant was appropriately costumed and every one went through their individual parts with credit to themselves and to the school.

Much credit is due the following teachers who did much to make the pageant a success: Miss Beulah Bruner, Miss Fannie Hope, Miss Katherine Helwig, Miss Carrie Hopkins, Prof. Harry A. Miller and Prof. E. L. Harrington.

And to Miss LaRue Kemp, who had charge of the training school music and of the training school operetta.

TO PLAY WARRENSBURG

Normal Team in Last Contest Tomorrow Afternoon With Fast School Team.

On tomorrow afternoon the Normal school base ball team will play their last game of the season with the fast Warrensburg Normal team.

The local team was defeated when they played at Warrensburg by a 9-1 score due largely to the fact that some very raw decisions in the first few innings, gave Warrensburg two runs and took two earned runs from the local team. Coach Eek's men are in prime condition and are thirsting for revenge. The line-up has been considerably changed since the beginning of the season. McKee has taken his regular position behind the bat, Adams has been shifted from left field to third base, while Third Baseman Bird is filling McKee's place at shortstop. Miller, who has played field all year, has changed places with Noblett at second base.

The Normals have the fastest team this year they have ever had, and have won seven out of eleven games played so far. The two games lost to Tarkio was just a case of luck, with Tarkio holding the rabbit's foot. The record for this year is as follows:

Normal 9, Maryville Company F 3.
Normal 2, Missouri Wesleyan college 0.
Normal 9, Maryville Company F 0.
Normal 1, Warrensburg Normal 9.
Normal 9, Missouri Wesleyan college 2.
Normal 7, Conception college 6.
Normal 3, Tarkio college 4.
Normal 7, Tarkio college 8.
Normal 5, Nebraska Indians 17.
Normal 12, Conception college 3.
Normal 12, Amity college 5.

The line-up for tomorrow afternoon will be: McKee, catcher; Ham, pitcher; Dyer, first base; Miller, second base, Adams, third base; Bird, shortstop; Long, right field; Brittain, center field; Noblett, left field; Wilson, utility. The game will be called promptly at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

THE COMMITTEE

APPOINTED TO HAVE CHARGE OF Y. M. C. A. MOVEMENT.

TO ERECT BUILDING

If There is Enough Encouragement and Campaign Will Start Within The Next Few Weeks.

President J. F. Hull of the Maryville Commercial club announced Tuesday morning the appointment of the committee for the organization of a Y. M. C. A. for Maryville. Those on the committee are S. H. Kemp, chairman; Roy Curfman, G. B. Roseberry, Floyd I. Brown and W. M. Westbrook. This is the same committee appointed at a meeting held April 17 of the representatives of the brotherhoods of the churches of Maryville, and at the brotherhood meeting of all the churches last Friday at the Christian church it was recommended that President Hull appoint a committee for a Y. M. C. A. organization.

The brotherhoods of the churches strongly endorse the Y. M. C. A. movement and favor the committee's recommendation that $40,000 be raised. The committee suggested that a suitable site within two blocks of the square be bought, the cost not to exceed $7,000, and a building be erected, the cost to be about $27,000, and equipment, including swimming pool, at an estimated cost of $6,000.

The committee is empowered to appoint auxiliary committees to help raise the money and to help with the organization.

The program of the evening's concert will be announced later.

JACK JAMES TO GEORGIA PEN.

Former Maryville Police Character Faces a Six Years' Term for Bigamy.

Jack James, who served a three months' sentence in the county jail here because he went to a dance in East Maryville in an exuberant condition and sought to lend zest to the occasion by shooting up the place, is William DeBord, and will have to go back to Griffin, Ga., to serve out a six years' sentence for bigamy and assault with intent to rob. Sunday's St. Joseph Gazette, in speaking of it, says:

Since coming back to St. Joseph he married again and his wife three days ago gave birth to a son.

After committing several crimes DeBord fled to Columbus, O., and joined the army in June, 1911. In September his trail was followed, and he was dishonorably discharged and taken back to Georgia for trial. On being sentenced he was sent in a chain gang to work the roads, and he says he had made up his mind to be a good prisoner and take his punishment.

However, he says the treatment received made him desperate and he took the chance of being shot down and made his escape. The prisoners, he declares, are fed vile food and whipped like work horses when they slacken their work. He says they are worked along with negroes and are expected to accomplish as much.

He escaped about 11 o'clock in the morning, and kept in flight, although wounded, until late in the afternoon. All this time he was making his way, shackled, through swamps and forests, in constant fear of being captured. At last he found an old ax in the woods and with that and a rock for a hammer, he cut the shackles where they were riveted to his ankles.

He wandered about, going under the name of Jack James and finally went to St. Joseph. Last winter he was accused of robbing an old man in St. Joseph, but fled to Albany, where the police tried to capture him at the request of St. Joseph officers.

He jumped from a hotel window and got away. The next heard of him was in Maryville, where he danced and paid the fiddler with a three months' term in jail. Released from there he was taken into custody by waiting officers from St. Joseph, and for two months has been in the Buchanan county jail. The robbery case against him was not strong, and P. J. Ryan was working all the time on the theory that the prisoner had committed a crime somewhere else. The detective sized DeBord up as a deserter and sent his finger prints to Washington, D. C., to the central office of identification. Word came back that the prisoner had been dishonorably discharged in 1911, and had been sent back to Georgia to answer a civil charge.

The government did not know that he afterward had escaped, but Ryan wasn't satisfied. So he wrote to the officials at Griffin, Ga., and yesterday received the information that led to DeBord's confession. The officials there were notified by wire yesterday that DeBord was in custody here, and a deputy sheriff is now on his way here to take charge of the prisoner.

DEATH OF MRS. LABLANCE.

Former Maryville Resident Died at San Leandro, Cal., of Pneumonia.—Was Miss Hood of Maryville.

A letter received at this office Monday announces the death of Mrs. Maggie LaBlance of San Leandro, Cal., following an illness of double pneumonia. Mrs. LaBlance will be better remembered as Miss Maggie Hood, only child of Mr. T. F. Hood, who, with W. B. Graves, was a manufacturer and dealer in saddlery and harness in Maryville during the eighties. Mrs. LaBlance was 40 years of age. Mr. Hood had made his home with his daughter since her marriage to Mr. LaBlance, fifteen years ago.

Many old Maryville friends were in attendance at the funeral, among whom were Mrs. I. N. Albin and daughter, Mrs. Alma Lee; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ellsworth, Mr. Henry Cox, Mrs. McDermitt and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Vaughn.

YOUNGER CASES

BEING ADJUSTED TODAY OUT OF COURT.

LAWYERS IN SESSION

Going Over the Terms of Settlement—Simmons Will Get Property and Pay Claim of Rockwell Bros.

All of the cases against Joseph and Carrie Younger, formerly of Elmo, but now of Calgary, Canada, will probably be settled and adjusted out of court within the next few days. A meeting is being held this afternoon by the attorneys of the various parties, and the terms of settlement were being gone over. Ellis G. Cook is representing the Youngers, M. E. Ford and I. K. Alderman are representing Rockwell Bros. of Texas and A. F. Harvey of this city and Tom Moxcey of Atchison, Kan., are looking after the interest of O. A. Simmons of Atchison.

As to the terms of settlement, it is understood that Simmons gets all of the property of Younger, probably valued at $20,000. Then Simmons is to pay Rockwell Bros. of Texas their original claim and also the costs in the cases.

The Younger cases have been on the docket in this county for the past three years and were the most complicated cases ever filed. All of the other creditors of Younger, it is understood, have been settled with except Rockwell Bros., and if the terms of settlement are agreed upon this afternoon Younger will then be free of all litigation in Nodaway county, so far as it concerns his financial deals at Elmo some three or four years ago.

SHOW TO CLARINDA.

"A Night in Bohemia" Will Be Put On There Friday Night.

Arrangements have been completed for the presentation of the home talent performance of "A Night in Bohemia" at Clarinda on Friday night, May 29. Quite a number of the boys in the show have friends in Clarinda, and it was at their suggestion that the plans were made. Glenn Goff, who is directing the play, was there last week and made arrangements for the show.

It is not the intention of the company or the promoters to put on the show for financial gain but for the experience of playing in a strange city. The opera house seats a thousand people and was built recently. An orchestra will be taken along to furnish music for the show.

The trip to Clarinda is to be made by automobile, as train connections are poor. It is planned to make this a sociability affair, and everyone is invited to make the trip. The company will leave at about 5 o'clock and return after the show. Several will make the trip with their cars, among them E. E. Williams, Kyle Phares, Dr. Jesse Miller, F. P. Reuillard, Fleming Carpenter, Harry Wells, Burman Wells and Will Sawyers.

If enough money is made at Clarinda it is planned to have a picnic and all those who make the trip will be invited.

Anty Drudge Tells How to Stop Worrying

Mrs. Stayathome—"I am going to have a little vacation, Anty Drudge. I haven't been away for ten years, and Millie wants me to come and pay her a visit, so I'm going. I have left everything for John, so he will be comfortable, and he can get enough to eat for himself. The only thing that worries me is the big washing I'll have to do when I get back."

Anty Drudge—"Pshaw! I wouldn't let a thing like that spoil my pleasure. If you tackle your wash with Fels-Naptha Soap, you will find it isn't half as hard as you expect, even if it is two weeks' clothes."

every woman used to dread more than anything else, has been made easy for her. She used to stand all day over her tubs, rubbing, rubbing, till she nearly dropped; keeping up a hot fire to boil her clothes and making herself miserable in every way.

Now she can use Fels-Naptha Soap, rub it on the clothes, roll them tightly, put them to soak in cool or lukewarm water for about thirty minutes. She can let her fire go out, if she wants to; she won't need it for her washing. After the clothes have soaked, she can rub them lightly, rinse them thoroughly and hang out. Her work is done.

Follow the directions on the Red and Green Wrapper.

Better buy Fels-Naptha by the carton or box.

The Only Objection to Drinking Milk Has Been Removed

There are still some people who hesitate to use milk freely as an article of food.

They do not realize that the wonderfully improved methods in producing and handling milk which have been perfected and generally adopted in the last few years have made milk one of our most wholesome foods.

Because we have never hesitated to adopt every means which we believed would safeguard or improve the quality of our milk, and to make assurance doubly sure

all our milk is now clarified by the De Laval Centrifugal Process

While all our milk is produced under the most sanitary conditions and every precaution is taken against every contamination, we now go a step farther as this process removes any objectionable matter which may have been in the milk before leaving the cow's udder or which may possibly have gotten into it through handling.

The DeLaval Process of Milk Clarification does not involve the heating of milk, the use of chemicals or other outside agents. It is a scientific application of Centrifugal Force. Milk may be inspected, guaranteed or certified, but unless it is Centrifugally Clarified there can be no certainty that it is clean, pure, and healthful.

JOHN W. COLEMAN WRITES.

Maryville Resident Tells of His Trip
Out West and About the State of Idaho.

Following is a letter written by John W. Coleman of this city, who left a month or so ago on a western trip: Boise, Idaho, May 14, 1914.—Mr. James Todd, Editor Democrat-Forum, Maryville, Mo. Dear Sir and Friend: Having been a resident of Nodaway county, Mo., for full fifty-nine years to a day, and in Maryville for more than nine years of that time, I made a promise to many of my friends that I would write something of my trip to the far west, and as a subscriber to your paper I am writing for publication, if you will honor me with the space, so that I may in part make good my promise to my friends through the columns of your valuable paper.

If I were a fatalist I would think the above date would make some important epoch in my life perhaps yet to be, for at the age of 14 I left Illinois on March 14, 1855, arriving in Nodaway county April 14th of that year, and left Nodaway county April 14th, 1914, for the western trip.

I left Maryville over the Burlington to St. Joseph, and after spending a day with some acquaintances and looking after some property interests I left St. Joseph April 15th, crossing the Missouri river into Nebraska at Rulo, leaving the Sunflower state to the south. The trip through Nebraska was without special mention, excepting to note the large acreage already in crop, and the very substantial appearance of the improvements and general conditions of the country.

Eastern Colorado was passed through during the night and I did not see much of it, but on arising in the morning of April 16th I saw for the first time grand old Pike's Peak lifting its summit into the vaulted blue, and exposing here and there in well defined outlines the eternal snow that crowns its lofty and imposing heights. We were then some fifty miles from Denver, where we arrived about 7 a. m.

Denver is a queenly city on the shoulders of the Rocky mountains, and is now and I verily believe will always be the metropolis of that great state. Our stay there, however, was very short, and in a couple of hours we were again on our way over the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, the great scenic line of the west. Taking a southern course through Colorado Springs, the city of millionaires, then on to Pueblo, on the Arkansas river, where are located the smelters and the great Bessemer steel works, thence west again through the city of Florence, which is the center of the oil region, also on the Arkansas river. Our next stop was Canyon City. Here the penal institution of the state is located, and now we are in the Royal Gorge. Here I wished for the pen of the student of nature and the language of an orator, that I might adequately make a word painting of this wonderful gorge and the magnificent scenery by the way. A short stop at Salida and we turn northward through the counties of Chaffee and Lake, and here we are climbing the mountains to the height of 11,000 feet at Leadville, and something over this at Tennessee pass. A few miles farther on and we took a southwestern course to Glenwood Springs, and down the Grand river through the wonderful fruit sections of the Pikes to Grand Junction, a short stop and we push on still westward and arrive at Utah's metropolis—Salt Lake City—and thence to Ogden, Utah. A short stay here and then the iron horse again takes up the westward trail and we are now on the Oregon Short Line railroad and are soon in Idaho, the Gem of the Mountains, the state of magnificent hills and lofty mountains, deep canyons, forming the mighty cribs for storing the winter snows, which the warm rays of the sun in spring and summer brings down through rivulets, streams and rivers, the water which gladden the valleys and prairies and make the desert blossom like the rose.

There are still vast stretches of sage brush, notwithstanding the reclaiming that has been going on for many years in which the government has so generously taken a hand, spending millions of dollars in constructing dams, reservoirs and canals, as is also the state and private enterprises in conquering the sage brush and establishing homes, making farms and building cities.

I was met at the Junction City—Nampa—on the O. S. L. by my daughter, Mrs. Fay D. Young, Mr. Young being an officer in the Idaho Trust and Savings bank of Boise, and in a short time I found myself in their comfortable and cozy home, where I met my son-in-law, whom I had not seen for a quarter of a century, and my granddaughter, Laverne, whom I had not seen for several years.

Boise was a surprise to me. I was not prepared to see so clean, beautiful and up-to-date a city as Boise, the queenly capital of this great state.

Idaho has 85,000 square miles and approximately 400,000 population. It is 20 per cent larger in area than my own state of Missouri. The weather is fine, the climate milder than many places of the same latitude, especially is this true of the magnificent valleys of the Snake, Boise, Payette and Weiser rivers. These being sheltered and protected by the mountain ranges which traverse the state from northwest to southeast, which provides protection to fruit and early vegetables which these valleys are fast becoming noted for.

Sincerely yours,
J. W. COLEMAN.

COMMENCEMENT

EXERCISES OF THE NORMAL THIS MORNING.

ADDRESS BY MR. LINN

The seventh annual commencement exercises of the Maryville State Normal school were held this morning at 10:30 o'clock in the school auditorium. The stage was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowering plants. Rev. L. M. Hale gave the opening invocation. The Normal school chorus then gave two selections, "Hail Smiling Morn" and "Hymn to Cynthia."

President Richardson introduced President Paul H. Linn of Central college, Fayette, Mo., formerly pastor of the Buchanan Street Methodist church of this city. Both men were graduates of the institution of which Mr. Linn is now president. Mr. Linn said in beginning that the only way that the young people going out from this or any other institution could hope to make themselves felt was through the self-expression of the faculties which had been trained in the school.

"If I may not be misunderstood," said Mr. Linn, "I will say that the best thing that you can add to your present equipment, if you do not possess it is a noble discontentment. Contentment is good; yes, contentment of the right sort is an admirable thing to possess, but it is too often confused with pure laziness. Never be content when you can do one more iota toward the accomplishment of the task to which you have set your face."

"Wherever a condition is not perfect, wherever you see a thing which should be done better, wherever your life can be made bigger, fuller and more useful to men, there is the place for a noble discontent. The greatest men which the world has ever known have possessed this discontent. The greatest productions of literature, art, sculpture and everything which is good or beautiful in the world is the product of a man in whose mind was a noble discontent. To this factor is due every invention and all progress which the world has made."

"A noble discontent leads to outward accomplishment, but to be truly great and successful you must be willing to pay the price."

"Home, luxury, material comforts, and even at times friends is the price which is often required of one in the pursuit of the goal which the discontent in his mind has set for him."

After Mr. Linn's address Mrs. F. P. Robinson sang two songs, "Primroses" and "Flower Rain."

Dean George H. Colbert then read the names of those whom the faculty had recommended for graduation, and President Richardson declared them graduates of the school. Those who received diplomas are Eva Call, Clara Clymens, Grace DeMotte, Flora Dungey, Hildred Hanna, Chastain Harrell, Jane Hinote, Edna Hollister, Arlie Hulet, James Jones, Glen Lukens, Floy Lyle, Della B. Manley, Louise Marshall, Gertrude Mason, Frank McKee, Amber Leone Nabring, Lenore B. Peery, C. B. Perry, Bess Porter, Jane Salmund Beatrice Sewell, Mattie Simmons, Elizabeth Mary Sobbing and Harriett VanBuren. Mrs. Nellie Evans Dale was granted a post-graduate diploma in the department of home economics and art.

The class play, "A Scrap of Paper," which was given by the senior class last night in the school auditorium, was well attended and was executed with distinction to every member of the cast. Much credit for the success of the play is due Prof. Harry A. Miller, who has been of much help to the students in their practices.

THE NORMAL PAGEANT.

Was a Great Success and Held On the School Campus—To Be an Annual Affair.

Yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock the first Normal school pageant was given on the school campus, just west of the main building. This is an event which will be made an annual affair, and the initial performance yesterday afternoon would indicate that this will become one of the brightest of the Normal school traditions in the years to come.

An audience of nearly 500 people had assembled before the natural stage formed by an open place in the pines, and the actors made their appearance from the pines behind the stage, thus giving each act a beautiful natural setting.

The opening act was given by the training school pupils, who gave several scenes from the Platte Purchase, beginning with the signing of the treaty with the Indians, of the arrival of the early settlers, and finally of the coming of the civilization which we know today. So well had the children prepared their part of the program that they held the audience in rapt attention for more than one hour.

The young men's and young women's Christian organizations were the next to appear on the program, and gave a number of scenes from the book of Ruth. The whole story of Ruth and Naomi was portrayed, the actors showing in their costumes and actions the dress and customs of the times.

The senior class then gave a representation of each of the different departments of instruction in the Normal school. The department of agriculture was represented by a person bearing a sheaf of grain; of history by a Roman orator in the toga; of education by a learned looking person with a book, and so on through each department of the school.

The Philomathean Literary society gave a series of representations from various literary masterpieces, among which were Silas Marner, Rip Van Winkle, The Courtship of Miles Standish, The Other Wise Men, and The Shepherd of the Hills.

The last event of the afternoon was given by the Eureka Literary society, who gave a portrayal of the landing of the John Smith colony in the Virginias. The colonists made safe landing, but it was found necessary to punish some of the recalcitrant workmen by pouring water down their sleeves. Powhatan and his tribe then captured the colonists, but peace was made upon the intercession of Pocahontas, who saved John Smith's life and then was given in marriage to him.

Each actor in the whole pageant was appropriately costumed and every one went through their individual parts with credit to themselves and to the school.

Much credit is due the following teachers who did much to make the pageant a success: Miss Beulah Bruner, Miss Fannie Hope, Miss Katherine Helwig, Miss Carrie Hopkins, Prof. Harry A. Miller and Prof. E. L. Harrington.

And to Miss LaRue Kemp, who had charge of the training school music and of the training school operetta.

TO PLAY WARRENSBURG

Normal Team in Last Contest Tomorrow Afternoon With East School Team.

On tomorrow afternoon the Normal school base ball team will play their last game of the season with the fast Warrensburg Normal team.

The local team was defeated when they played at Warrensburg by a 9-1 score due largely to the fact that some very raw decisions in the first few innings, gave Warrensburg two runs and took two earned runs from the local team. Coach Eck's men are in prime condition and are thirsting for revenge. The line-up has been considerably changed since the beginning of the season. McKee has taken his regular position behind the bat, Adams has been shifted from left field to third base, while Third Baseman Bird is filling McKee's place at shortstop. Miller, who has played field all year, has changed places with Noblett at second base.

The Normals have the fastest team this year they have ever had, and have won seven out of eleven games played so far. The two games lost to Tarkio was just a case of luck, with Tarkio holding the rabbit's foot. The record for this year is as follows:

Normal 9, Maryville Company F 3.
Normal 2, Missouri Wesleyan college 0.
Normal 1, Maryville Company F 0.
Normal 1, Warrensburg Normal 9.
Normal 9, Missouri Wesleyan college 2.
Normal 7, Conception college 6.
Normal 3, Tarkio college 4.
Normal 7, Tarkio college 8.
Normal 5, Nebraska Indians 17.
Normal 12, Conception college 3.
Normal 12, Amity college 5.

The line-up for tomorrow afternoon will be: McKee, catcher; Ham, pitcher; Dyer, first base; Miller, second base, Adams, third base; Bird, shortstop; Long, right field; Brittain, center field; Noblett, left field; Wilson, utility. The game will be called promptly at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

THE COMMITTEE

APPOINTED TO HAVE CHARGE OF Y. M. C. A. MOVEMENT.

TO ERECT BUILDING

If There is Enough Encouragement and Campaign Will Start Within The Next Few Weeks.

President J. F. Hull of the Maryville Commercial club announced Tuesday morning the appointment of the committee for the organization of a Y. M. C. A. for Maryville. Those on the committee are S. H. Kemp, chairman; Roy Curfman, G. B. Roseberry, Floyd I. Brown and W. M. Westbrook. This is the same committee appointed at a meeting held April 17 of the representatives of the brotherhoods of the churches of Maryville, and at the brotherhood meeting of all the churches last Friday at the Christian church it was recommended that President Hull appoint a committee for a Y. M. C. A. organization.

The brotherhoods of the churches strongly endorse the Y. M. C. A. movement and favor the committee's recommendation that $40,000 be raised. The committee suggested that a suitable site within two blocks of the square be bought, the cost not to exceed $7,000, and a building be erected, the cost to be about $27,000, and equipment, including swimming pool, at an estimated cost of $6,000.

The committee is empowered to appoint auxiliary committees to help raise the money and to help with the organization.

JACK JAMES TO GEORGIA PEN.

Former Maryville Police Character Faces a Six Years' Term for Bigamy.

Jack James, who served a three months' sentence in the county jail here because he went to a dance in East Maryville in an exuberant condition and sought to lend zest to the occasion by shooting up the place, is William DeBord, and will have to go back to Griffin, Ga., to serve out a six years' sentence for bigamy and assault with intent to rob. Sunday's St. Joseph Gazette, in speaking of it, says:

Since coming back to St. Joseph he married again and his wife three days ago gave birth to a son.

After committing several crimes DeBord fled to Columbus, O., and joined the army in June, 1911. In September his trail was followed, and he was dishonorably discharged and taken back to Georgia for trial. On being sentenced he was sent in a chain gang to work the roads, and he says he had made up his mind to be a good prisoner and take his punishment.

However, he says the treatment received made him desperate and he took the chance of being shot down and made his escape. The prisoners, he declares, are fed vile food and whipped like work horses when they slacken their work. He says they are worked along with negroes and are expected to accomplish as much.

He escaped about 11 o'clock in the morning, and kept in flight, although wounded, until late in the afternoon. All this time he was making his way, shackled, through swamps and forests, in constant fear of being captured. At last he found an old ax in the woods and with that and a rock for a hammer, he cut the shackles where they were riveted to his ankles.

He wandered about, going under the name of Jack James and finally went to St. Joseph. Last winter he was accused of robbing an old man in St. Joseph, but fled to Albany, where the police tried to capture him at the request of St. Joseph officers. He jumped from a hotel window and got away. The next heard of him was in Maryville, where he danced and paid the fiddler with a three months' term in jail. Released from there he was taken into custody by waiting officers from St. Joseph, and for two months has been in the Buchanan county jail. The robbery case against him was not strong, and P. J. Ryan was working all the time on the theory that the prisoner had committed a crime somewhere else. The detective sized DeBord up as a deserter and sent his finger prints to Washington, D. C., to the central office of identification. Word came back that the prisoner had been dishonorably discharged in 1911, and had been sent back to Georgia to answer a civil charge.

The government did not know that he afterward had escaped, but Ryan wasn't satisfied. So he wrote to the officials at Griffin, Ga., and yesterday received the information that led to DeBord's confession. The officials there were notified by wire yesterday that DeBord was in custody here, and a deputy sheriff is now on his way here to take charge of the prisoner.

DEATH OF MRS. LABLANCE.

Former Maryville Resident Died at San Leandro, Cal., of Pneumonia—Was Miss Hood of Maryville.

A letter received at this office Monday announces the death of Mrs. Maggie LaBlance of San Leandro, Cal., following an illness of double pneumonia. Mrs. LaBlance will be better remembered as Miss Maggie Hood, only child of Mr. T. F. Hood, who, with W. B. Graves, was a manufacturer and dealer in saddlery and harness in Maryville during the eighties. Mrs. LaBlance was 40 years of age. Mr. Hood had made his home with his daughter since her marriage to Mr. LaBlance, fifteen years ago.

Many old Maryville friends were in attendance at the funeral, among whom were Mrs. I. N. Albin and daughter, Mrs. Alma Lee; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ellsworth, Mr. Henry Cox, Mrs. McDermitt and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Vaughn.

YOUNGER CASES

BEING ADJUSTED TODAY OUT OF COURT.

LAWYERS IN SESSION

Going Over the Terms of Settlement—Simmons Will Get Property and Pay Claim of Rockwell Bros.

All of the cases against Joseph and Carrie Younger, formerly of Elmo, but now of Calgary, Canada, will probably be settled and adjusted out of court within the next few days. A meeting is being held this afternoon by the attorneys of the various parties, and the terms of settlement were being gone over. Ellis G. Cook is representing the Youngers, M. E. Ford and I. K. Alderman are representing Rockwell Bros. of Texas and A. F. Harvey of this city and Tom Moxcey of Atchison, Kan., are looking after the interest of O. A. Simmons of Atchison.

As to the terms of settlement, it is understood that Simmons gets all of the property of Younger, probably valued at $20,000. Then Simmons is to pay Rockwell Bros. of Texas their original claim and also the costs in the cases.

The Younger cases have been on the docket in this county for the past three years and were the most complicated cases ever filed. All of the other creditors of Younger, it is understood, have been settled with except Rockwell Bros., and if the terms of settlement are agreed upon this afternoon Younger will then be free of all litigation in Nodaway county, so far as it concerns his financial deals at Elmo some three or four years ago.

SHOW TO CLARINDA.

"A Night in Bohemia" Will Be Put On There Friday Night.

Arrangements have been completed for the presentation of the home talent performance of "A Night in Bohemia" at Clarinda on Friday night, May 29. Quite a number of the boys in the show have friends in Clarinda, and it was at their suggestion that the plans were made. Glenn Goff, who is directing the play, was there last week and made arrangements for the show.

It is not the intention of the company or the promoters to put on the show for financial gain but for the experience of playing in a strange city. The opera house seats a thousand people and was built recently. An orchestra will be taken along to furnish music for the show.

The trip to Clarinda is to be made by automobile, as train connections are poor. It is planned to make this a sociability affair, and everyone is invited to make the trip. The company will leave at about 5 o'clock and return after the show. Several will make the trip with their cars, among them E. E. Williams, Kyle Phares, Dr. Jesse Miller, F. P. Reuillard, Fleming Carpenter, Harry Wells, Burman Wells and Will Sawyers.

If enough money is made at Clarinda it is planned to have a picnic and all those who make the trip will be invited.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Anty Drudge Tells How to Stop Worrying

Mrs. Stayathome—"I am going to have a little vacation, Anty Drudge. I haven't been away for ten years, and Millie wants me to come and pay her a visit, so I'm going. I have left everything for John, so he will be comfortable, and he can get enough to eat for himself. The only thing that worries me is the big washing I'll have to do when I get back."

Anty Drudge—"Pshaw! I wouldn't let a thing like that spoil my pleasure. If you tackle your wash with Fels-Naptha Soap, you will find it isn't half as hard as you expect, even if it is two weeks' clothes."

every woman used to dread more than anything else, has been made easy for her. She used to stand all day over her tubs, rubbing, rubbing, till she nearly dropped; keeping up a hot fire to boil her clothes and making herself miserable in every way.

Now she can use Fels-Naptha Soap, rub it on the clothes, roll them tightly, put them to soak in cool or lukewarm water for about thirty minutes. She can let her fire go out, if she wants to; she won't need it for her washing. After the clothes have soaked, she can rub them lightly, rinse them thoroughly and hang out. Her work is done.

Follow the directions on the Red and Green Wrapper.

Better buy Fels-Naptha by the carton or box.

The Only Objection to Drinking Milk Has Been Removed

There are still some people who hesitate to use milk freely as an article of food.

They do not realize that the wonderfully improved methods in producing and handling milk which have been perfected and generally adopted in the last few years have made milk one of our most wholesome foods.

Because we have never hesitated to adopt every means which we believed would safeguard or improve the quality of our milk, and to make assurance doubly sure

all our milk is now clarified by the De Laval Centrifugal Process

While all our milk is produced under the most sanitary conditions and every precaution is taken against every contamination, we now go a step farther as this process removes any objectionable matter which may have been in the milk before leaving the cow's udder or which may possibly have gotten into it through handling.

The DeLaval Process of Milk Clarification does not involve the heating of milk, the use of chemicals or other outside agents. It is a scientific application of Centrifugal Force. Milk may be inspected, guaranteed or certified, but unless it is Centrifugally Clarified there can be no certainty that it is clean, pure, and healthful.

JOHN W. COLEMAN WRITES.

Maryville Resident Tells of His Trip
Out West and About the State
of Idaho.

Following is a letter written by John W. Coleman of this city, who left a month or so ago on a western trip: Boise, Idaho, May 14, 1914.—Mr. James Todd, Editor Democrat-Forum, Maryville, Mo. Dear Sir and Friend: Having been a resident of Nodaway county, Mo., for full fifty-nine years to a day, and in Maryville for more than nine years of that time, I made a promise to many of my friends that I would write something of my trip to the far west, and as a subscriber to your paper I am writing for publication, if you will honor me with the space, so that I may in part make good my promise to my friends through the columns of your valuable paper.

If I were a fatalist I would think the above date would make some important epoch in my life perhaps yet to be, for at the age of 14 I left Illinois on March 14, 1855, arriving in Nodaway county April 14th of that year, and left Nodaway county April 14th, 1914, for the western trip.

I left Maryville over the Burlington to St. Joseph, and after spending a day with some acquaintances and looking after some property interests I left St. Joseph April 15th, crossing the Missouri river into Nebraska at Rulo, leaving the Sunflower state to the south. The trip through Nebraska was without special mention, excepting to note the large acreage already in crop, and the very substantial appearance of the improvements and general conditions of the country.

Eastern Colorado was passed through during the night and I did not see much of it, but on arising in the morning of April 16th I saw for the first time grand old Pike's Peak lifting its summit into the vaulted blue, and exposing here and there in well defined outlines the eternal snow that crowns its lofty and imposing heights. We were then some fifty miles from Denver, where we arrived about 7 a.m.

Denver is a queenly city on the shoulders of the Rocky mountains, and is now and I verily believe will always be the metropolis of that great state. Our stay there, however, was very short, and in a couple of hours we were again on our way over the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, the great scenic line of the west. Taking a southern course through Colorado Springs, the city of millionaires, then on to Pueblo, on the Arkansas river, where are located the smelters and the great Bessemer steel works, thence west again through the city of Florence, which is the center of the oil region, also on the Arkansas river. Our next stop was Canyon City. Here the penal institution of the state is located, and now we are in the Royal Gorge. Here I wished for the pen of the student of nature and the language of an erator, that I might adequately make a word painting of this wonderful gorge and the magnificent scenery by the way. A short stop at Salida and we turn northward through the counties of Chaffee and Lake, and here we are climbing the mountains to the height of 11,000 feet at Leadville, and something over this at Tennessee pass. A few miles farther on and we took a southwestern course to Glenwood Springs, and down the Grand river through the wonderful fruit sections of the Palisades to Grand Junction, a short stop and we push on still westward and arrive at Utah's metropolis—Salt Lake City—and thence to Ogden, Utah. A short stay here and then the iron horse again takes up the westward trail and we are now on the Oregon Short Line railroad and are soon in Idaho, the Gem of the Mountains, the state of magnificent hills and lofty mountains, deep canyons, forming the mighty cribs for storing the winter snows, which the warm rays of the sun in spring and summer brings down through rivulets, streams and rivers, the water which gladden the valleys and prairies and make the desert blossom like the rose.

There are still vast stretches of sage brush, notwithstanding the reclaiming that has been going on for many years in which the government has so generously taken a hand, spending millions of dollars in constructing dams, reservoirs and canals, as is also the state and private enterprises in conquering the sage brush and establishing homes, making farms and building cities.

I was met at the Junction City—Nampa—on the O. S. L. by my daughter, Mrs. Fay D. Young, Mr. Young being an officer in the Idaho Trust and Savings bank of Boise, and in a short time I found myself in their comfortable and cozy home, where I met my son-in-law, whom I had not seen for a quarter of a century, and my granddaughter, Laverne, whom I had not seen for several years.

Boise was a surprise to me. I was not prepared to see so clean, beautiful and up-to-date a city as Boise, the queenly capital of this great state.

Idaho has 85,000 square miles and approximately 400,000 population. It is 20 per cent larger in area than my own state of Missouri. The weather is fine, the climate milder than many places of the same latitude, especially is this true of the magnificent valleys of the Snake, Boise, Payette and Weiser rivers. These being sheltered and protected by the mountain ranges which traverse the state from northwest to southeast, which provides protection to fruit and early vegetables which these valleys are fast becoming noted for.

Sincerely yours,
J. W. COLEMAN.
